WINDSOR

Lyrics Dedicated
to the Memory of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother and in Honor of the Dedication to the Nation of All the Beloved of the House of Windsor

To the music of “Prelude to the 49th Parallel” by Ralph Vaughan Williams

(pick-up & two-bar intro)

When will we ever meet again?
I know that we will, when
all of our work and dreams are done,
and we shall rest—
over the river and beneath the willow trees
together
with joyful hearts we greet each other
when we meet there…

(musical bridge)

O, when will we meet again?
I know that we will, when
all of our work and dreams are done,
and we shall rest—
over the river and beneath the willow trees
together again, together again,
with joyful hearts
O, there shall we ever meet again!

Eduard James Qualls
Copyright © 2013
Tous droits réservés.

* Inspired by its presentation by the Northern Sinfonia of England, conducted by Richard Hickox: “Hickox Conducts Vaughan Williams”, ASIN B00004TQ06